

ENOREE NEWS.

Enoree, S. C., Jan. 8.—The opening of the new year social season was made particularly memorable Thursday evening, Jan. 1., to a number of friends when Mrs. W. C. Whitmire entertained at one of the most interesting parties of the season. The cordial hospitality of this home is always a distinct pleasure to scores of friends. All the apartments were thrown into one. Christmas greens with holly and mistletoe made a lovely framing for the pretty picture.

After the guests had arrived partners were found for a flower contest by drawing corresponding numbers which were mounted on dainty little hand-painted cards. The couple having the greatest number of correct answers was given a delicious box of candy. Tables were then arranged for cards and after many interesting games, a dainty salad course was served. Later in the evening the guests gathered around a daintily appointed table from which lunch was dispensed by Miss Lillie Willis.

Those invited were Misses Lillie Willis of Gray Court, Marie Yarbrough, Ruth Justus, Bessie Moore, Olie and Trula Goebel, Mozelle Huff, Netta and Jennie Engels, Eva and Fay Hill, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. To encourage home building is to encourage every man to be a citizen. The Gray property on Farley Ave. that you have named "Hillcrest" lies well, being high and dry—not too far from the business center to make attractive home sites and your plan of long terms and easy payments should encourage those with limited means to own their homes.

Traxler Real Estate Co.,
Greenville, S. C.

Gentlemen:—

I beg to state that the property now or formerly owned by W. L. Gray, in our city, on Farley Avenue, known as "Hillcrest," is the prettiest undeveloped location in our city. It is on a broad street and reasonably close to the square. It is probably the highest spot in the town, well drained, etc. It is exceedingly well located for splendid residences etc.

I further call to your attention that our town is building up rapidly, and there are splendid opportunities here for new people with investments, in various lines. I look for prosperity within the next year or two, the like has never been known in many years. Any information I can give you any time in reference to the town or property here, I will be glad to do so.

Yours very truly,
N. B. Dial.
